Chairman’s Report – Lynn Hill

Lynn had nothing for a report.

Road Master - Mike Steinbacher

The Supervisors met with PennDOT we need to work on Hillside and Valley Rd Mike wants to get them out for bid to try and get them done next year.

Roads that are not on our Liquid Fuels are being looked at. Lorson Dr will not be compliant because there is not a cul de sac at the end. Hillside Dr will be added. Johnson Dr will not because it is not wide enough. They will do more research on it.

They talked to Greg about the salt shed roof. Henry said he could come and plugged the holes.

Park Chairman – George Berninger

George did his walk through and everything looks good. He checked with Chris and there will be whiteboards to place on the pavilion to show who is renting the pavilion. The boards will only be placed the day of the rentals.

Old Business

Signage is now up for security cameras.

The brackets are installed o the road closed gate. They will be in a kit that they can just grab it and go to set them up on the gate during the road closed gate.

Ordinance 25-01 Supervisors' Pay Rate The resolution to raise the Supervisors hourly rate will be on the table at the next meeting.

New Business

Planning Commission will have a meeting on August 19, 2025 for Jake Kropp.

Fire Company Report – Jim Pfleegor

Brenton Pfleegor obtained 3 gas meters they were donated $5,000.00 worth of gas meters.

Asked for an executive session.

Jim also asked for an approval for a cornhole tournament during the gun raffle.
